Students are expected to exercise their freedom with responsibility.

Individual students and student organizations shall be free to examine and to discuss all questions of interest to them and to express opinions publicly and privately. They shall be free to support causes by orderly means that do not disrupt the regular and essential operation of the institution. Such regulations shall not be used as a means of censorship. The president or designee may prohibit any forum when holding the event, in his or her judgement, would result in physical harm or threat of physical harm to persons or property. Prior to any such prohibition, the president shall make his or her best effort to consult with a designated member of the student association.

All student publications shall explicitly state on the editorial page that the opinions there expressed are not necessarily those of the college, university system, or student body.

Student Policies

The policies of the college or university regarding student expectations, rights and responsibilities shall be readily accessible to students.

Catalog and Course Information

To the extent possible, students will be provided relevant and accurate information regarding courses prior to enrollment. Student Academic Standing Information

Students shall have access to accurate information about general requirements for establishing and maintaining acceptable academic standing, information which will enable students to determine their individual academic standing, and information regarding graduation requirements.

Sanctions for Conduct Code Violations

The following sanctions shall comprise the range of official action which may be imposed for violation of regulations; one or more sanctions may be imposed:

A. Conduct Warning: Conduct warning is a notice to students that their conduct has been questionable and that future breaches of conduct will be treated more severely. The warning is recorded in the private conduct records of the Student Conduct Officer.

B. Conduct Probation: Conduct probation is a trial period during which students must behave in a manner acceptable to the college. The status of conduct probation is assigned for a specific period of time. While on conduct probation, students are encouraged to seek advice and counsel from appropriate college resources. A conduct board may recommend terms of probation which restrict the students' participation in extra-curricular activities. The terms of probation may involve a conduct contract including, but not limited, to the following:

1. A work contract whereby the student is required to perform some type of work function. The work assignment shall be reasonably safe and related to the violation(s) of the students involved.
2. Counseling contract whereby the student is required to attend regular counseling sessions for the purpose of understanding behavioral motivation factors, accepting responsibility for and modifying behavior accordingly.
3. A contract restricting privileges. Conduct probation status may affect qualifications for some awards, prizes, or aid, particularly those stipulating conduct acceptable to the college. Proof of a major violation of the terms of probation or of a further major incident of misconduct shall result in separation from the college for not less than one full academic term (excluding summer session). Conduct probation is recorded in the private conduct records of the Student Conduct Officer.

C. Conduct Suspension: Conduct suspension is an action which excludes students for a specific period of time from registration or class attendance. The privilege of the use of college facilities is withdrawn by this action unless specific permission is obtained from the Student Conduct Officer.

In unusual circumstances (when the presence of the student on campus is deemed to be acceptable for the moment), a college suspension action decided after the eighth week of the term may be deferred until the end of the term by the Student Conduct Officer. Conduct suspension is recorded in the private conduct records of the Student Conduct Officer and appropriately noted in the transcript per MnSCU Policy 3.29.5b. Upon termination of the period of suspension, students shall be considered for registration in compliance with academic admission standards then in effect. Proof of a further incident of misconduct, after the students are readmitted, will likely result in dismissal or expulsion.

D. Summary Suspension: In certain circumstances, the Conduct Officer may impose a summary suspension prior to the informal or formal proceedings described in the other sections. A summary suspension may be imposed only when, in the judgment of the administrator, the accused student's presence on the college campus would constitute a threat to the safety and well-being of members of the campus community. Before implementing the summary suspension, the accused student shall be given oral or written notice of the intention to impose the summary suspension and shall be given an opportunity to present oral or written arguments against the imposition of the suspension. Notice of intent to impose the summary suspension shall be provided in writing to the student. After the student has been summarily suspended, the student shall be provided an opportunity for a formal or informal hearing within the shortest reasonable time period, not to exceed ten (10) days. During the summary suspension, the student may not enter the campus without obtaining prior permission from the Student Conduct Officer.

E. Conduct Dismissal: Conduct dismissal is the withdrawal by the President or designee of the college of the privilege of registration or class attendance with no promise (implied or otherwise) that the student may return at any future time. The privilege of the use of college facilities is withdrawn by this action unless specific permission is obtained from the Student Conduct Officer. Conduct dismissal is recorded in the private conduct records of the Student Conduct Officer and permanently noted in the student's academic transcript. Students on conduct dismissal may be readmitted only by action of the President of the college or designee. Students who have been dismissed are not eligible for readmission sooner than one year from the date of dismissal. If the students are readmitted, proof of a further incident of misconduct shall result in expulsion.

F. Conduct Expulsion: Conduct expulsion is the permanent withdrawal by the President of the college of the privilege of registration or class attendance. The privilege of the use of college facilities is withdrawn by the action unless specific permission is obtained from the Student Conduct Officer. Conduct expulsion is recorded in the private conduct records of the college Student Conduct Officer and permanently noted in the student's academic transcript.

G. Loss of Privilege: Loss of privilege is the withdrawal of a privilege or use of a service for a specific period of time consistent with the offense committed and the rehabilitation of the student. Loss of privilege is recorded in the private conduct records of the Student Conduct Officer. Note: For SCTCC students living in St. Cloud State University residence halls, this can require re-assignment to a different residence hall floor or building. It can also include residence hall contract termination and removal from the premises. Loss of privilege may be imposed separately or in addition to any other sanction(s), including those imposed by SCSU's Student Life and Development Office.

H. Restitution: Restitution requires students to pay for damages for misappropriation of college funds, property, or the property of members of or visitors to the college community. Such reimbursements shall be charged to any student who alone, or through group concerted activities, organizes, or knowingly participates in the events causing the damage or costs. Restitution is recorded in the private conduct records of the Student Conduct Officer. Restitution may be imposed separately or in addition to any other sanction(s).
